Andy Robinson Named Head Football Coach

St. Frederick High School Principal Blair David is pleased to announce the hiring of Andy Robinson as the new head football coach.

Andy graduated from Riverfield Academy 1998. While at Riverfield, Andy lettered in football, basketball, baseball, and track. After graduating from Riverfield Academy, Andy attended Louisiana Tech University on a football scholarship. While at LA Tech, he was a letter winner in the 2000 season, a member of 2001 Western Athletic Conference Champions, and played in the 2001 Humanitarian Bowl in Boise Idaho. Andy graduated from Louisiana Tech with a Bachelors of Arts in Education in 2003, and obtained his Masters of Arts in School Counseling and Guidance in 2006. Andy will be joining the St. Frederick High School community with more than 16 years of field coaching and administrative experience. Coach Robinson has coached in numerous school systems in East Texas and North Louisiana, and had several years of experience at the collegiate level.

Andy is married to Ashley Antony Robinson and they have 2 children, Parker 10, and Ryder 5. Ashley Robinson was named Gatorade Player of the year and Miss Basketball for Louisiana 1999. Andy's Dad, Corky Robinson, is the former Head Football Coach at Delhi High School.

St. Frederick High school is pleased and excited that Coach Robinson will be joining the Warrior Family. Please contact the St. Frederick High School Athletic Department at (318)-323-9636 if you have any questions or need further information.
